MANIFESTA 10

MANIFESTA 10 and their travel partner Starliner would like to offer all contemporary art lovers a unique travel package: a three-day tour to and around St. Petersburg. The compulsory elements of the program include a visit to MANIFESTA 10, the European Biennale of Contemporary Art, as well as the choice from a variety of tailored tours devoted to classical or contemporary culture of St. Petersburg.

The package will include promotional offers on accommodation in partnering hotels around the city, assistance in obtaining a tourist visa to Russia and a wide variety of proposals to support the excursion trips — family weekends, visiting creative spaces in contemporary St. Petersburg, trips to venues included in the MANIFESTA 10 Parallel Program, exclusive guided tours with literary, historical and architectural themes, and many other interesting routes will form the basis for an excellent stay in Russia's cultural capital.

Starliner specialists will help you to create a personalised tour, guided by your preferences for travelling: providing options to arrive in the city by plane, train, ferry or car. Starliner will also help to jam-pack your stay with visits to the most vibrant places in the city and events tailored to suit your interests.
